

ASBO'S—Dealing with Anti-Social Behaviour

A One Day Course

Facilitated by: Mick Start

Mick is a retired police Inspector and a qualified interview skills trainer. He has a high level of expertise in dealing with antisocial behaviour.

The aims and objectives of this one day course are:

- To provide a practical understanding of the nature and impact of Anti Social Behaviour in our communities.
- To provide a detailed understanding of the relevant legislation and its effect – and also to consider the practical limitations.
- To assist development of a “what works” strategy.
- To consider the wider implications of Anti Social Behaviour in a Community Safety Context.

Course Outline

Session 1 –

Effects of Anti Social Behaviour- Crime and Disorder Strategies

Current Legislation

Crime and Disorder Act 1998

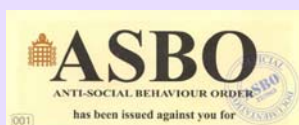

Police reform Act 2002

Anti Social Behaviour Act 2003

Housing Legislation , Tenancy Agreements

Developing a strategy

Using the media

Session 3 –

Case Studies— exploring the process

“Traditional ASBO” (FORD)

“Doing it the hard way” (Kavagnah)

“Another approach” (Louth)

Using ASBOs with Criminal Charges (bail and post conviction)

Session 2 –

“Tools in the Box”, Warning letters, ASBO,

CRASBO, ABCS, Tenancy agreements,

Mediation, Civil injunctions

How to get an ASBO, Legal considerations,

Hurdles, Hearsay, Reluctant witnesses,

Professional witnesses, Balance of proof

Where to get advice

Who should be involved

Reluctant partners

Preparing the file and consultation

Session 4 –

Other Anti Social Behaviour issues affecting the environment

Abandoned vehicles

Fly posting

Drugs and drink

Problem solving process